

Criterion F: Feedback from client
Questionnaire to gather feedback from Basil Chesney

Questions for client	Yes/No	Comments
Are you satisfied with the final product?	Yes	Yes, I was amazed at the neat design and colors, and also the navigations and slideshow graphics which are very interactive.
Is the style of the product appropriate for your purpose?	Yes	Yes, the designs are very simple and will be eye-catching for the students in school to make them want to learn more about Earth Club.
Does it meet the expected deadlines?	Yes	Yes, I set up one year as a achieving goal; and I was quite satisfied that the product was in fact finished less than one year, with that amount of quality.
What do you like the most about the product?	Yes	I specifically like the interactiveness. The slideshows, change in color when I hover over links, the mini-quiz. I think it can really attract all visitors of this page. I also liked the easy navigations both in the header and footer which is exactly like on the design.
Does it meet the initial requirements?	Yes	Yes, it wasn't at all costly, it meets the deadline, the designs, and other requirements we agreed upon at the initial stages.
Are you satisfied with the level of consultations throughout the project?	Yes	Yes, I was satisfied with the regular consultation so that I could know every progress that was made at every stages, and make an agreement and adding feedbacks.
Is there any areas which I can improve?	Yes	Not really, I recently had ideas of selling fundraising items online. Maybe we might want to do that in the future.

Is there sufficient amount of information, or is it too much/lacking?	Yes	It's about enough. Putting too much information would just bore the readers. I think the information are concise and good enough.
Does the website work with different browsers?	Yes	Yes, I can see it working properly under the browsers that are oftenly used such as Safari and Google Chrome.
Does the website work with different devices?	Yes	Yes, I can certainly view it in my phone. However, maybe it would look better if it was resized specifically for the sizeof the phone.
Does the website succeed at promoting the club as well as the environment?	Yes	Yes, I think the aim is achieved. I asked a few of my students about their opinion, and they seem interested to look around the website. So, I think it will really help our promotions in the future.
Is there anything that you dislike about the website?	Yes	No. Nothing in particular. Like I had said, I think it would be better to apply some improvements like an online fundraising and resizing some of the features specifically if opened on phone.
